"Isn't this Joseph's son?"

Jesus taught the people in his home town.
The people in Nazareth had a hard time thinking of Jesus as a great teacher.
They kept remembering him as a boy.

Match each child to his or her parent

 In each row, X the one that does not belong.

Jesus said that no prophet was respected in his own town.

The people were angry when Jesus spoke and they made him leave town. When they tried to hurt him, he slipped through the crowd and went away.
